Delivery shall become payable against presentation of warehouse storage certificate. Title in the Equipment and risks of loss or damage to the Equipment shall therefore pass upon completion of Delivery as described above.

In such case, Buyer and Seller shall mutually agree on new date for shipment and delivery of the Equipment. Seller shall transport the Equipment as per the Delivery Term. Buyer shall reimburse Seller for all costs of storage, handling and additional transportation costs reasonably incurred within thirty (30) days of receipt of Seller's invoice for payment of such costs.

Documentation, delay in achievement of Key Milestone or failure to achieve a Performance Guarantee if Buyer did not incur loss or liability as a result of such delay or failure. Buyer shall, or cause Owner to, indemnify, defend and hold harmless Seller and its Subcontractors of any tier from and against any suit, demand, claim, counter-claim, cross-claim, cause of action or actions and from all damages that may be imposed on, incurred by or asserted against them, or any one of them, in any manner arising out of, resulting from or in connections with any type of Nuclear Damage or Nuclear Incident.

15.2 Buyer shall notify Owner to provide and maintain nuclear insurance coverages and financial securities as provided in the "1963 Vienna Convention on Civil Liability for Nuclear Damage", as amended, and to the extent permitted thereby in an amount equal to the greater of the maximum amount available or the full replacement value of Buyer and Owner's real and personal property at the nuclear power plant.

These Nuclear liability insurance and financial securities shall ensure full compensation of the Buyer, Seller and their Subcontractors of any tier and their personnel for compensation of any Nuclear Damage and full protection against a Nuclear Incident, including coverage for any loss of or damage to any property arising out of insurable perils.

The insurance and indemnity arrangement shall continue in effect for such period as may be necessary to cover liability arising out the operation of the nuclear power plant.

The insurers providing such nuclear insurance coverages shall have no rights of recourse or subrogation against Buyer, Seller, its Subcontractors of any tier or their personnel for Nuclear Damage.

In addition, and in accordance with Article 2 of this Agreement, it has been approved by the relevant Russian Authority that the "2000 Bilateral Agreement on Third Party Liability for Nuclear Damage caused in connection with deliveries from the French Republic for Nuclear Installations in the Russian Federation", fully applies to Seller, its Subcontractors of any tier and their personnel, meaning that (i) no claims can be brought against the French suppliers on grounds of nuclear damage resulting from nuclear incident which has taken place within the territory of the Russian Federation, and (ii) the Government of the Russian Federation has agreed to provide the French suppliers appropriate legal protection and to exempt them from liability claims by third parties in connection with nuclear damage resulting from nuclear incident occurring within the territory of the Russian Federation.

15.3 The Parties agree that Owner, as operator of the nuclear power plant for which the Work is being performed is exclusively liable for all damages resulting from a Nuclear Incident.

15.4 Seller and its Subcontractors of any tier shall under no circumstances and at no time be liable for any Nuclear Damage resulting directly or indirectly from a Nuclear Incident.

15.5 Buyer shall, or cause Owner to, defend, indemnify and hold harmless Seller and its Sub-suppliers of any tier against any claims by third parties, including insurers, for any Nuclear Damage.

15.6 If after the entering into force of the Contract, any Applicable Law or international convention expires or is modified in such a way that Seller and its Subcontractors of any tier may be held liable for Nuclear Damage in connection with a Nuclear Incident, then Buyer shall, or cause Owner to, inform Seller promptly thereof and to ensure by legally enforceable means (e.g., waivers of liability, government indemnity and/or insurance) that Seller and its Subcontractors of any tier shall incur no such liability.

15.7 Buyer shall, or cause Owner to, ensure that neither Work or any information or service furnished hereunder is transferred or any interest therein is assigned without Buyer or Owner having ensured protection for Seller and its Subcontractors of any tier equivalent to the protection provided in this clause after such transfer or assignment. This applies only for items that are intended to be used in a critical safety application. A critical safety application is the use where there is a plausible possibility that failure, malfunction or error could cause a Nuclear Incident or aggravate the consequences of such an incident.

15.8 The provisions of this Article 15 shall be in effect for as long as the nuclear power plant for which the Work is performed is in operation and thereafter until all radioactive material have been removed from the Site and shall apply regardless of negligence of whatever degree (including gross negligence) and regardless of breach of contract and shall apply notwithstanding any other provisions of the Contract.

15.9 Buyer acknowledges and declares that the provisions of the present Clause 15 - Nuclear Liability & Insurance benefit as well to any Subcontractors of any tier of Seller and that the said Subcontractors of any tier shall be entitled to directly enforce the provisions of Clause 15 toward the Buyer.

15.10 The Parties recognize that the liability of Owner for Nuclear Damage is not defined under this Contract, Owner not being a party to the present Contract.

It is recognized that Owner liability for Nuclear Damage is defined under law by the "1963 Vienna Convention on Civil Liability for Nuclear Damage", as amended. It is further recognized that the "2000 Bilateral Agreement on Third Party Liability for Nuclear Damage caused in connection with deliveries from the French Republic for Nuclear Installations in the Russian Federation" fully applies to the Contract to the benefit of Seller.

Article 16. Limits of Liability

16.1 (a) Seller's total aggregate liability for all losses, claims or damages arising out of or in connection with the Contract, its performance or breach (including indemnity claims), whether such liability arises in contract shall not exceed fifteen percent (15%) of the Contract Price.

(b) Seller's total aggregate liability for all losses, claims or damages arising out of or in connection with the Contract, its performance or breach (including indemnity claims), whether such liability arises in tort (including negligence) or otherwise, shall not exceed fifteen percent (15%) of the Contract Price.

(c) Overall cap of Seller's liability regardless its ground shall in no case exceed fifteen percent (15%) of the Contract price.

16.2 The rights, remedies and liabilities of the Parties as set out in the Contract shall be the sole and exclusive rights, remedies and liabilities in respect of the matter to which they relate and shall apply to the exclusion of any other rights, remedies or liabilities that might be available at law, whether express or implied.

16.3 (a) Notwithstanding any other provisions in the Contract or the Applicable Law, except in respect of the Contractual Liquidated Damages provisions under the Sub-articles 13.1, 13.2, 13.3 and 13.4 of the Contract and Buyer's liability for late payment interest pursuant to Article 5.2.4, neither Party shall be liable to the other in contract for loss of profit, loss of revenue, loss of anticipated saving, loss of use, loss of production, loss of generating capacity, loss of contract, cost of replacement power or additional fuel, increase in operating costs, cost of capital or for any financial or economic loss or for any special, indirect, incidental or consequential damage whatsoever.

(b) Notwithstanding any other provisions in the Contract or the Applicable Law, except in respect of the Contractual Liquidated Damages provisions under the Sub-articles 13.1, 13.2, 13.3 and 13.4 of the Contract and Buyer's liability for late payment interest pursuant to Article 5.2.4, neither Party shall be liable to the other whether by way of Compensation (as per Article 14) or breach of statutory duty or in tort (including negligence) or under any other legal theory for loss of revenue, loss of anticipated saving, loss of use, loss of production, loss of generating capacity, loss of contract, cost of replacement power or additional fuel, increase in operating costs, cost of capital or for any financial or economic loss or for any special, indirect, incidental or consequential damage whatsoever.

16.4 In the event Seller is liable for costs arising from damage occurring during installation, commissioning or testing, such liability is conditional upon Buyer having procured insurance coverage as specified in Article 17 of the Contract.

16.5 Seller shall have no liability for the quality of work performed by the Buyer, Buyer's other contractors, and/or Buyer's Customer and/or Owner and/or third parties not under the control of Seller. Seller shall not be liable for approval or acceptance of work performed by Buyer or Buyer's other contractors or for advice or information provided by Seller.

Article 18. Default, Suspension &

Baltic NPP Unit 1 & Unit 2 – Equipment Supply Contract / March 20th, 2012

CONFIDENTIAL DOCUMENT

Termination

18.1 Duty to Mitigate

18.1.1 Notwithstanding any other provision, right or remedy contained in the Contract, in the event of a default by either Party the other Party shall use its best endeavours to mitigate the impact of such default to minimize any claim upon the delinquent Party.

18.2 Termination – Suspension

18.2.1 In the event of a material default by Seller, Buyer's exclusive remedies shall be to serve written notice on Seller specifying the nature of the default and requesting Seller to implement corrective action. If Seller fails to commence implementation of corrective action within a reasonable period after receipt of such notice and thereafter fails to diligently pursue such corrective action to completion, then Buyer shall be entitled to unilaterally refuse to perform its obligations under the Contract (i.e. terminate the Contract) without recourse to the courts. In such a case Buyer shall be entitled to charge Seller for costs in excess of the Contract Price reasonably incurred by Buyer in completing any uncompleted portion of the Contract itself or having it performed by another contractor.

18.2.2 Buyer shall be entitled to unilaterally refuse to perform its obligations under the Contract (i.e. terminate the Contract) for reasons of delay provided that (i) such delay is directly attributable to the Seller, (ii) Seller has reached the cap for Delay Liquidated Damages, (iii) Seller failed to complete Delivery within an additional period agreed by the Parties further to have reached the cap for Delay Liquidated Damages, and provided that (iv) such delay directly caused termination of the Main Contract. It is agreed by the Parties that in all other circumstances of delay the Parties shall meet in order to mitigate as much as possible the effects of such delay under this Contract and the Main Contract.

18.2.3 Subject to termination of the Main Contract, Buyer has the right to unilaterally refuse to perform its obligations under the Contract (i.e. terminate the Contract) only in case of material breach by Seller, by service of prior written notice to Seller. The Contract shall be considered terminated thirty (30) days after Seller's receipt of such written notice. Upon receipt of such notification, Seller shall stop execution of Works. In such an event Seller shall be entitled to payment within thirty (30) days of the sum specified in the termination schedule in Exhibit 7 in respect of the Unit Price of terminated Units (less previous payments received from Buyer) relating to the month in which termination became effective. For that part of the Contract Price applicable to the Services, Seller shall be entitled to payment for any services performed but not paid for at the time of termination.

If no termination schedule is specified, Seller shall be paid for (i) finished Equipment delivered or in a deliverable state (except for related transport cost) but not yet paid, (ii) its costs incurred in respect of Works in progress (including subcontracts and raw material supplies ordered in expectation of completing the Contract), provided that title on such Works passes to Buyer from Seller upon their payment, (iii) those costs to which Seller is committed at the time of termination. Payment shall be made within thirty (30) days of receipt of Seller's invoice for these amounts.

18.2.4 Seller shall be entitled to suspend the Contract (i) by immediate notice in writing in the event of the Buyer's insolvency or (ii) thirty (30) days after service of notice in writing in the event of the Buyer's material breach of the Contract (including failure to issue a certificate properly due to Seller or make or procure payments when due). Seller can unilaterally refuse to perform its obligations under the Contract (i.e. terminate the Contract), without recourse to the courts, by written notice in the event of prolonged suspension by either Party (other than for Seller's default) of a duration longer than sixty (60) days.

In such cases, Seller shall be entitled to recover all sums due, together with the substantiated costs of all Works performed and commitments entered into prior to or as a result of any such suspension or unilateral refusal to perform by Seller (including the costs of protection, preservation and maintenance of the Equipment), and the reasonable costs of demobilisation and re-mobilisation and the repatriation of its personnel. Seller shall further be entitled to an equitable adjustment to the Contract time schedule and to substantiated costs arising from any suspension ordered or caused by the Buyer.

In the case of suspension, Seller shall not be obligated to resume performance until written agreement on the amount of costs and time required incurred resulting from the suspension and payment of such costs in full.

Article 19. Changes in Law & Change Orders

19.1 Buyer Changes

19.1.1 Buyer may from time to time submit to Seller in writing a proposal of change to Seller's Scope of Work or the Delivery Schedule ("Change Proposal").

19.1.2 Change Proposals shall have the following process:

(a) Upon receipt of the Change Proposal, Seller shall within thirty (30) days submit to Buyer in writing a statement as to the effect, if any, which such Change Proposal would have on the Scope, Contract Price, Contract Schedule, Warranties, Performance Guarantee, and/or other provisions of this Contract ("Change Proposal Response").

(b) Buyer must then respond in writing within ten (10) days of receipt of Seller's Change Proposal Response, commenting thereupon or agreeing to it.

(c) The Parties must then agree a Change Order in the form set out in Exhibit 11. Change Orders shall (a) be mutually agreed in writing before commencement of work, (b) be limited to $\pm 15\%$ of the Contract Price in aggregate, (c) specify the scope, price and program of the change, (d) specify any effects on the program, performance guarantees, warranties and/or other Contract terms, (e) specify agreed payment terms analogous to those set out in Article 5, (f) specify agreed security of payment and (g) specify agreed procedures, notice periods and documentation.

19.1.3 No Change Order under Article 19.1 shall be valid or effective unless agreed upon and signed by both Parties. In the event the Parties are unable to agree on the terms of a Change Order, then Seller shall not be obligated to carry out the Change Order.

19.2 Seller Changes

19.2.1 Seller shall have the right to ask for an equitable adjustment to the Contract Price, to the Contract Schedule and to a Change Order if its costs or ability to perform its obligations under this Contract are affected by act or omission of any governmental body or agency, the Owner, Buyer and/or any other contractor of Owner or Buyer.

19.2.2 Upon becoming aware of any of the circumstances described in Article 19.2.1, Seller shall as soon as reasonably practicable give written notice thereof to Buyer, and within thirty (30) days of such notice, Seller shall submit to Buyer in writing a Change Order, identifying the circumstances and setting forth the required changes to the Contract Price, costs, Contract Schedule, Warranties, Performance Guarantee, and other provisions of this Contract which Seller believes are reasonable and equitable in view of the circumstances.

19.3 Change in Law

In the event any change occurring after the Main Contract signature date in any law, norm, regulation, code standards or in the application or interpretation in respect thereof by a Governmental Instrumentality or by a Court, including any change in tax regulation, or in the event of any enactment or making of the same occurring after the Main Contract signature date, results in a delay in the performance of Contract's obligation, in any change in the Works, and/or in an increase of Seller's cost in performing its contractual obligations, Seller's shall be entitled to an extension of time under the Contract and compensation of its resulting additional cost by the Buyer.

Consequently, the amounts payable under this Contract by the Buyer to the Seller as well as the time for delivery and/or completion shown on the Contract Schedule shall be equitably adjusted to reflect the increase in the amount of such cost and the increase in time required to deliver the Equipment and/or complete the Works or Services. If required the Contract shall be adjusted as well to be in line with the Change in Law.

This confidentiality obligation shall last for a period of ten (10) years from the date of disclosure and shall not apply to information that is publicly available or obtained legally from a third party.

20.2 The Parties acknowledge and agree that, in the event of any breach of this Confidentiality obligation, the Party to whom the information belongs ("Harmed Party") would be irreparably and immediately harmed and could not be made whole by monetary damages. Accordingly, it is agreed that, in addition to any other remedy to which it may be entitled at law, the Harmed Party shall be entitled to an injunction(s) (without the posting of any bond and without proof of actual damages) to prevent breaches or threatened breaches of this Confidentiality obligation and/or to compel specific performance thereof, and that neither the Party making the unauthorized disclosure ("Disclosing Party") nor its representatives will oppose the granting of such relief. The Disclosing Party also agrees to reimburse the Harmed Party for all costs and expenses, including reasonable attorneys' fees, incurred by the Harmed Party in attempting to enforce the obligations of the Disclosing Party or of its representatives hereunder.

Article 21. Intellectual Property Rights

21.1 All Intellectual Property Rights in technical information and other information, whether in written, graphic, electronic or any other form, relating to the Work, owned, held or acquired by Seller prior to or during the preparation of Seller's proposal/tender and/or in the course of performance of this Contract shall be and remain the property of Seller ("Seller's IP").

21.2 All performance test results of Seller's Equipment for tests performed pursuant to this Contract shall be considered as Seller's IP, irrespective of who performs the tests or prepares the test reports.

21.3 Seller's IP shall be kept confidential by Buyer and its other contractors and shall not be copied, altered, modified, manipulated or disclosed by any of them. Seller's IP shall not be used by Buyer, its employees, agents and subcontractors, as well as the Buyer's Customer, Prime Contractor, Owner for any purpose other than the operation, maintenance and repair of the Equipment.

21.4 Seller hereby grants Buyer a non-exclusive and non-transferable royalty free right to use Seller's IP provided under the Contract for the life of the Equipment but solely for the purposes of its operation, maintenance and repair. As a sole exception to the non-transferable license, Seller authorizes Buyer to grant Buyer's Customer, Prime Contractor, Owner a non-exclusive and non-transferable royalty free right to use Seller's IP provided under the Contract for the life of the Equipment but solely for the purposes of its operation, maintenance and repair.

21.5 Buyer grants to Seller a non-exclusive royalty free right to use any information provided by Buyer under or in connection with the Contract for the purposes of performing Seller's obligations under the Contract.

21.6 For avoidance of any doubt, in no case shall the Seller be obliged to submit under the present Contract manufacturing drawings, shop drawings, source codes.

Article 22. Subcontract

22.1 Seller shall be free to subcontract any part of its Scope. In such case, Seller shall remain responsible towards Buyer for any subcontracted Work.

22.2 (a) For Equipment identified as a Component, a list of approved subcontractors is set forth in Exhibit 9 ("Approved Subcontractors List"). Seller shall have discretion to choose subcontractors from this list.

(b) All licensees and Affiliates of Seller are deemed approved.

22.3 For suppliers and subcontractors of Components who are not included in the Approved Subcontractors List, the Buyer's approval shall be necessary only for subcontracts in excess of fifty million (50,000,000.00) Euro ("Major Subcontract").

22.4 (a) In the event that Seller is considering for a Major Subcontract the selection of a subcontractor not on the Approved Subcontractors List, Seller shall:

(i) Notify Buyer in writing of its proposed subcontractor at the earliest practical point in Seller's selection process and furnish to Buyer such information reasonably required to assess the proposed subcontractor with respect to Seller's selection criteria (including copies of bid packages, but excluding price and payment information, furnished to the proposed subcontractor and the qualifications and experience of the proposed subcontractors); and

(ii) Notify Buyer no less than ten (10) Business Days prior to the execution of a Major Subcontract with a subcontractor not on the Approved Subcontractors List.

(b) Buyer, acting in good faith, may reasonably reject such proposed subcontractor for a Major Subcontract if the proposed subcontractor does not have the necessary financial or technical capability or is reliably reputed to be unsuitable for the position.

(c) Buyer must expeditiously review the information provided by Seller reasonably and in good faith, and notify Seller of any rejection the reasons for the rejection, as soon as such a decision is made. If at the end of the ten (10) Business Day notice period described above, if Seller has not received written notice of Buyer's rejection of the proposed subcontractor, then the proposed subcontractor is deemed approved and may be added to the Approved Subcontractors List. Seller may then execute such agreement with the proposed Major Subcontractor.

(d) If the Buyer rejects any proposed subcontractor, and a replacement subcontractor is not available on commercially reasonable terms, any alternative arrangement will entitle Seller to a Change Order pursuant to Article 19.

Article 23. Force Majeure

23.1 A Party shall not be in default, and shall not be liable to the other Party for any loss or damage, as a result of delay or failure to perform any obligations hereunder, other than a payment obligation, if such delay or failure is caused by a Force Majeure event. The other Party shall also take all reasonable steps to mitigate any loss or damage suffered by it that is attributable to the effects of the affected Party's delay or failure.

23.3 The affected Party's time for performing its obligations shall be extended by the length of time necessary to overcome the effects of the Force Majeure event.

23.4 When delay caused by a Force Majeure event lasts for more than thirty (30) days the Parties shall meet in order to evaluate the effects of such Force Majeure event on performance under the Contract (time schedule, extra costs) and decide on mutually acceptable amendment.
